Supervision

Fourteen hardy souls, slogging their weary way through deep drifts and various other wintery vagaries, pursued the bright candle of knowledge till its dying flicker on frigid Friday. Or, in governmentalese, Supervision #60 (GS 10-12) ended on 16 December with 14 of the original 18 members of the class still in attendance. Though the class began late for several days, only one day was lost completely. The material of that day was inserted into the other areas of study without destroying the continuity of the course. We feel that we should definitely commend the participants in Supervision #60 for their enthusiasm and hardiness.
